Uncle Jamie! I can still hear you walking in to mom and dad's yard and greeting me with "whatcha doing boy?" The sadness of you leaving us didn't hit me hard until Sunday when I began to think about our younger days. Since we are only 8 years apart and I was an only child we spent a lot of time together. For many years you were like an older brother rather than an uncle. You will be missed but one day we will all be singing and praising together. Love you!

I've got many good memories of Jamie hanging out with my dad when I was growing up. Although not a blood relative, he's always been like family. Another one gone too soon/young. So sad to hear of his passing. Sorry I can't make the services, but know that you are in my thoughts.

He is part of a loving Family, a body with many parts, and this one will be missed. But we must adapt and help each other through this, Jamie would want that. Jamie you are truly loved, and never forgotten. Until then, be at peace and dance with the Angels. RIP Jamie

I am mad at you still, but I will always love you, and will always be your sissy. You will look out for me in heaven as you did here on earth. Damn you aren't suppose to be gone yet. I guess really only the good die young. Brian will miss y'all's early morning talks every day. Forever in my heart, my brother.
