I see the countless Christmas trees, Around the world below. With tiny lights, like heaven's stars, Reflecting on the snow. The sight is so spectacular, Please wipe away that tear. For I'm spending Christmas, With Jesus Christ this year. I hear the many Christmas songs, That people hold so dear. But the sounds of music can't compare, With the Christmas choir up here. For I have no words to tell you, The joy their voices bring. For it is beyond description, To hear the angels sing. I can't tell you of the splendor, Or the peace here in this place. Can you just imagine Christmas, With our Savior, face to face? I'll ask Him to light your spirit, As I tell Him of your love. So then pray one for another, As I lift you eyes above. Please let your hearts be joyful, And let your spirit sing. For I'm Spending Christmas in Heaven, And I'm walking with the King. ~© Wanda Bencke ~ Thinking of all of you, as you grieve for Uncle Frank. Aunt Nora, I haven't lost a spouse, so I can't even imagine what you are going through. I can only imagine. To Frankie, Mike & Roger, we never get to old to need or miss our parents. May you all find peace that Uncle Frank is spending Christmas with Jesus this year. Debbie

This is really hard for me. I havent seen Uncle Frank in a few years because he hasn't been home here to GA. My mama Gina gave me the number to call him Tuesday night but it was late. I told her I will call him on Wed, but I never got that chance. Aunt Nora my heart is with you and all the family. I wish I could be there in person for you. I do hope to see you all soon. God is with you all and he will give you the peace you need to get through. He wil never leave you or forsake you. God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for He shall receive me. Psalm 49:15 Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.
