I am the wife of one of his great grandsons. Raymond was a wonderful man. My husband, children, and I lived in Jacinto City a while back and would visit the Gartmans frequently. I loved to sit and talk to them. They loved each other very much, and I admired their love. I told Wayne (my husband) that I want to grow old together and look to them as a reminder and memory of what love is. Rest In Peace! We loved you, The Winkler Family
