Our love and prayers are with you. The words you want to say are never right at a time like this. Because when you lose someone you love Heaven feels so far away. But you haven't lost her. She is still with us all. She just moved to Heaven. We can't pick up the phone but we can still talk to her. We can't get in a car to go see her. But we can look into the faces of the children and grandchildren she has and see her. I know these words are of little comfort now. My hope is that they will be someday. I loved your Mom. I loved Aunt Lillian. She was always so sweet to me. Even though I did not stay in touch the way I should have, Aunt Lillian will always have a place in my heart. God bless you all.
