Momma, I miss you so much. Just looking at your picture today brought me to crying. I know you are in Heaven with Jesus basking in all his glory. Someday we will meet you there. Until then you will always be in my heart, my thoughts, every thing I do. You raised up 8 children that love their mom. You did a great job, I never told you that. We will honor and respect what you have instilled in us. We miss you so much. I love you momma. You and Daddy are so loved and missed. Love to both of you.

Momma, Happy Birthday. I miss you like crazy already!! It just doesn't seem real that I can't call you and tell you Happy Birthday and see how your day is going, like I did every day. I wish you had a phone there with you in Heaven and I would call you every day. Just when your about to eat, you would know it was me when the phone rings. Just like normal. I wish you didn't have to go, but I am happy that you are no longer in pain and can breath freely. I imagine you up there holding Baby Boy and dancing around with him, and holding and loving him. The way you always said you wished you could do with Jared. This puts a smile on my face, because you are able to do that. I miss you SOOOOOO much though, and it hurts. Give Daddy, Baby Boy, and Grandma a big hug and kiss for me. Tell Uncle Junior that I still remember "I am only half Daniel". :) Tell Bruce and everyone else hi for me. I love you, come visit me in my dreams sometime.

While it is sad to see a loved one leave us, we know as Christians, we never see each other for the last time. Proof of a Mother's love is shown in how her children rise up and call her BLESSED. Having worked with Deborah for many years, I know Mrs Daneiel was this type of Mother. My prayers are with the family and loved ones.

I am so sorry for you loss. I remember your mother fondly from teaching me at Sunday School and seeing her at Church at Grace. She is in good hands now with her Lord and did what she prepared her life to do which was to go home. I look forward to the day when we will all be together again in a better place than this ,celebrating with the Lord.
