Nancy Clavier Bertrand lit a candle in honor of Stonewall "Stoney".

I met stoney, Myra and dude all in Eunice, La. for Mardi gras. They would come down here and rent a spot at the northwest community center for their campers with a group of sweet people I was their hostess when they were here. I would go to the center and cook them all biscuits and coffee for breakfast and bring them where the Mardi gras would start the run so they could catch it all. The whole group was very sweet and loving. I grew fond of all of them and looked forward to seeing them the following year. Myra and dude said when I would no longer be there, they would never return and as she said when I told them I quit that job when our mayor lost that year, they never returned but kept in touch with me. Last I spoke to them was just before Mike passed away. Tonight I had dude on my mind again and looked him up and found out he had passed away in 2022 and that's why I had not been hearing from him so, I sat here and cried my heart out. Oh how I miss all them so much. REST IN PEACE DUDE, MIKE AND STONEY.

Crystal, Jerry, Vicky and Dude, There is only a handful of people who come into our lives who have lived theirs in such a way that you can only think good thoughts when you remember them. Stoney was one of these in mine and Shirley's thoughts when we spoke of him. I feel the sorrow with you and yours at this time. It is a strange coincidence but I looked into a box of pictures yesterday and what must be one of the last photos of Muriel was sitting on top of the box. Crystal, you especially seem to have made his final time as pleasant as was possible in his final days (and years), and you are much admired for your sacrifices and loving kindnesses. Dude I always felt that you and Stoney were almost twins in your dispositions and brotherly love. I feel your sorrow as well. Marion
