What's up Danny, my baby nephew. I figured if i texted a message it would relieve the emotional pain and struggles that randomly show up. I know you come in our dreams to show us your sweet presence. Other days your pictures start out as joy then remind us of our great loss. It's like a sharp dagger through the heart. I miss you mijo. In the end, I feel I got too busy with life. I did'nt spend that quality time people need. Hugs and the quick greets become the norm. Heck, life's demands continue to do so.{Pause} Carlos just called, after a million questions, it's time for me to get the kids to their breakfast. I look forward seeing your baby sissies, your momma, dad, the older ones are quiet and seldom visit. I always look forward to seeing them. Thank you for being your loving self around me and my kids. Btw, the boys were remembering the times they spent the night and got marked with extra boobs, mustache, six pack for falling asleep early... WE had laughs. I remembered. Danny, Javi and Isaac, Silly boys Rest In Peace Danny.

Chi wee CHIweese, Daniel SON, y Danny Boi without hesitation you responded with such Zeal, Personality, lest not forget the "eye catching" style. AND as many have stated, your bright SMILE! Your inquisitive mind continuously searching and exploring the depths of knowledge, to just being an easy going and well rounded young man. Yes, I'm proud of you. I promised myself, I'd incorporate some of your traits in my life, maybe I'll be more likeable (jeje). There it is, just like you, joking. Several times I started this note, a new memory triggered, disheartening feelings then uncontrolled emotions... Please forgive me. I pray the Lord continues to grant His strength and comfort to our family and loved ones. It has not and will not be easy. I will always love you mijo. Give my warmest regards y mil abrazos a mis abuelitos y los de maz. Dicen que "en los Cielos todos cantan Hallelujah yo tambien voy a cantar..." Peace be yours mijo.

Bless those who mourn, eternal God, with the comfort of your love that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that has been given. You know best how to comfort my family. Lift their hearts up to you and fill them with your peace. Your understanding is beyond our human comprehension, but give them the knowledge and faith to endure even that which they can't understand. Let them be aware of you always God, and help them to remember that your Love is Life that can never really be taken away and until we meet you again in glory. Love you Danny Boy. Amen.

Sending my condolences and prayers to the Cerda family. There are no words anyone can say to take away your pain, but I will be praying for God to put peace in your hearts and wrap you in his love through this difficult time.
