Harriet Marie Thompson, 55, entered into rest on Sunday, January 3, 2010, surrounded by her family. She was born in Houston, Harris County, Texas on January 1, 1955 to Mary Johnson and Martin Moellenkamp. She was preceded in death by her parents Martin Moellenkamp, Mary and Harry Johnson, her sisters Linda Crockett, Tina Roundtree and Norma Bryant. She is survived by her husband, James Thompson, daughters, Tabitha Brysch, Katie Gardner, Betty Williams, and her husband Charles, and Myra Spiros, and her husband Philip; sons, David Thompson, and his wife Brenda, and Mike Thompson; grandsons, Manuel, Larry, Jonah, Noah, and Caleb, and granddaughters, Joyce, Peggy, Kaylan, Jessica, Rebecca, and Meghan; and numerous grandchildren. She loved the Lord and her family. She was loved in return, will be remembered with deep affection and will be greatly missed. Harriet enjoyed her home in Carthage, Texas, where she lived on a lake and went fishing every time she had the opportunity. She also enjoyed doing puzzles, coloring, making paper flowers, and anything else that would keep her busy. She did not like to sit still in one place for very long. She loved her family dearly and always tried to help in anyway she could. She loved the Lord and we know that she is in heaven looking over us now.

I'm really going to miss you Harriet. The fun times we all had mostly around the house are memories that won't be forgotten. Whether we were fishing in the back yard or simply waiting for the rest of the family to show up to enjoy a wonderful Thanksgiving dinner. It was always the closeness of family that made coming to visit you so special. The next time we see each other it will be very similar because God is preparing a huge feast and there will be a wedding so big that even our imaginations can't even fathom God's awesome love for His bride-the church. See ya again soon.

Tabitha, I know that there are know words that can take the pain away that you are feeling right now. If there were I would surely do it. My love and prayers are with you and the family right now and you know that I will always be here for you. I'm only a phone call away. I know that if I am as proud of you as I am I know that your mother was very proud of you to. She raised you right. You are a very strong young lady that has more than your share to carry, but you have done a great job in doing all you could do for your mother. Trust me she will be looking down from heaven watching over you and the boys. Just like Jason is me. Your mother is with the Lord now and she is feeling no more pain. I just want you to know that I love you and I am here for you anytime day or night.
