Last night, March 3, I was informed of Noemi's new home in heaven! I have been thinking this entire evening of just why was she taken from us so soon! The only answer that I can only imagine is her time here was for a purpose...to console so many people. When Noemi lost her son, I was amazed at her strength, her total acceptance that her son was in a great place and her total devotion to her grandchildren and husband . A few years ago Noemi met the love of her life, Fernando. The times I would stop by the beauty salon we enjoyed laughter...she was so in love with Fernando and her new family. Fernando, I cannot imagine how difficult this must be for you, but the best thing you can do is BELIEVE 100% with your whole heart, mind and soul that God gave you and your children, Noemi, and that she brought you love in every sense of the word. Noemi touched the hearts of many people and it is because of this that everyone who knew her have wonderful memories of her kindness and love. Noemi, R.I.P.

Last Friday, January 25th, I learned about the passing of a very dear and beloved friend, Noemi Lopez. For those of us who got to Noemi, we will all agree that she was a very special lady! She was kind, thoughtful, good-natured and the one thing that stood out about Noemi was her smile for everyone! My most sincere and heartfelt sympathy goes to to her dear parents, brothers and sisters, beloved husband, children, and granddaughters! We often talked about her granddaughters and they were the sunshine of her life! She loved them very much and took care of them as if they were her very own children! She was a great person in every sense of the word, and for me and for so many, she will always be remembered for her expressions of unconditional love and he fine attention which she showed so many of us. May you rest in peace, my dear Noemi! We will all see you again one day in Heaven--the Heaven that you earned while you were here with us! Your friend always...Sra. Lidia

My Mother (Linda Rodriguez) and I give our sincere condolences to the Lopez and Gonzalez family. Noemi was a true angel on this earth. No matter what she went through in life she always had a smile on her face and a kind word to say. She was the best friend everyone would love to have in their lives. She was a child of God and you could tell by how she lived her life. I will truly miss my friend and think of her always. Rest now my dear friend. I will miss you forever.
