Chester Arthur Rogers, Jr.

NOV 20, 1942 - JUN 22, 2011

Chester A. Rogers Jr. was born November 20, 1942 to Chester and Ruby Rogers. He was raised on a farm until the age of seven when his family moved to Houston, TX. while in Houston and attending Galena Park High School he met the love of his life Arlene Rawlings. They married in March of 1965 and had two sons, Mike born in 1969 and Mark in 1972. Chester may have left the farm as a young boy but the farm never left him. Chester loved his family and friends, his dog, and his farm in Rosebud, TX. He would spend every chance he could at his farm carrying out the work his father once did. He loved to joke and laugh and make people smile. He was a little rough on the outside but a soft warm heart on the inside that would help anyone in need. When Chester had a passion he loved to share it with everyone. He would share it with you as if it was your passion too. Whether it was his farm, antique clocks, the Texas Aggies, or professional bull riding he would point out the details of how the combine would bring in the maize, or the proper way to wind a clock, or literally anything about the Aggies with a passion that you had to respect. The man knew what he liked and why he liked it. And he would often let you know. Chester was a hard worker who had a long career as a salesman for Walkup Co., his second family. Anyone who knew Chester knew he was a natural salesman because only he could talk to a fence post. Chester is survived by his wife Arlene Rogers, sons Mike Rogers, Mark Rogers and wife Monica Rogers and his precious granddaughter Peyton Elise Rogers. Also family members Joe and Lynda Turner, Jerry and Ouida Holt, Mary Rawlings, and many nieces and nephews. He will also be missed by many close friends. Our lives have been enriched for having known and loved him. He will be missed forever.

Arlene, Mike, and Mark - I just heard about Chester's passing. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with y'all. I still, to this day, tell stories about Chester, from our many visits in his man cave (he made it hip to have one before it really was!) to his countdowns every year for the start of bow season. I miss those times and regret that I didn't get back over there more often. I hope the knowledge that he was loved by many is in some way a comfort, along with knowing he is with Jesus now. While we grieve, we know that we will see him again when we join him in Heaven with our Savior. Take care.

I can't imagine how I am going to go on without you. The ache in my heart will never go away. I know in time the loss I feel now will lessen and the good memories will fill my heart. Tell Mother, Roy and your parents I miss them so much also. I will see you one day again, but until then I will love you forever.

Chester and I played Little League baseball together many many years ago in Galena Park. Life and circumstances separated us for 35 years. We got re-aquainted a number of years ago through our love of antique clocks and shared many trips and searches for our prizes. He had become a very dear friend again and I will miss him. Marcus

I'm truly sorry for your loss. I was fortunate to become friends with Chester back in the 1990's on a deer lease in Mason. We shared a lot of weekends during deer season and I became good friends with him. I looked forward to him and JW's harmless arguments after the evening hunts. After getting off the lease, for a few years I would go to the bull rides in Pasadena with him and kenny. Going back to the deer lease days, it's been over ten years since this day and I still tell the story. I actually told this story just a week ago. It was Thanksgiving day and it was only Chester and I at the lease and we shot a wild turkey that day and cooked it that night. How cool is that, taking a wild turkey on Thanksgiving. Well that night Chester being the cook that he was, made one of the best Thanksgiving turkey's I have ever had. Also his corn bread was awesome. Since leaving Tri State some years ago, I have lost contact with Chester and was truly sad to hear of his passing. Chester was the type of person you couldn't help but like and he will be missed by many. I have so many great memories to remember him and am blessed and honored to know him. He was a great man and I will truly miss him. God bless you and your family
