I previously posted here, but somehow it was deleted. Again, Sammy always had a smile on his face when he came into the auto parts store (NAPA, Jacinto City). He, and his dad, would always bring us donuts, cookies, cakes, etc., and this made me realize that he was more special to us other than just a customer. He was a true friend indeed. His smile and laugh will surely be missed by many people. My thoughts go to the family. Blessings always.

My life wouldn't be the same without a doubt! Sammy always coming to brighten our night with a put put/supertrack/movie/burger king/taco cabana or night at the ballpark ... don't forget those smart jokes ... I had my share! Running behind me at the shop with those oily hands and HUGE smile ... a friend that transformed us thanks to his dedication to each and everyone of us....
