I think of Karen often and wish I could hear her laugh and see her smile and most of all that occasional face to face candid conversation about how we felt about the world as it is. Life is so difficult most of the time that even a phone call for the ones left behind is just a fleeting thought. I love you Bobby and family... you may not feel it, but I do.

I had the privilege of working with Karen for 6 years at Mountain Products. She was my confidant, my antagonist and most of all a dear friend. Working with Karen made me a better "boss". (Secretly she was in charge.) I remember her smile and her laugh. I count myself blessed to have called her "friend". She loved her Bobby her sons. She will forever be in my heart. I love you Karen. Two "Sister Reunions" were not enough and I'm so sorry that we didn't start them long ago. I guess we all thought there was plenty of time and never considered that we wouldn't have a third. They were special and I will treasure them as I felt we rediscovered the special bonds of our childhood. I'm going to miss you so very much but find comfort that one day we will have our 3rd Sisters Reunion in Heaven. I loved you Sis!

Karen was a wonderful sister full of life and caring. My earliest memories were when she was in high school and I was in 1st and 2nd grade and Mom made her take me to school in her car. She would turn on the radio and sing along she had such a beautiful voice. Karen was so lucky to have found Bobby and have two wonderful sons and she was so looking forward to retiring and spending time with Bobby doing the things they liked. I'm not meant to understand why things happen as they do. I loved my sister and in time my grief will turn to the cherished memories of her.

Karen and I lived down the street in Rolling Hills. Our boys went to school together and we were great friends. She was a blessing to me and I could tell her anything. She and I played womens softball, worked together at Target Warehouse, and sat with each other at C E King football games. She was a blessing to me and someone that would do anything for you. I pray for Bobby and the boys and all her family and friends. Thank God there was Karen Wright on this earth, she will be missed deeply. Love, Cheryl & Howard Gann & Family

Karen was such a wonderful lady and will surely be missed. Earth has no sorrow that heaven can't heal. I know that this is a hard time right now, but remember "absent from the body, is presence with the Lord". My prayers go up and out for the Custer & Wright families.
