Dear Ragina, when I started here at Doerle I always heard wonderful stories of this wonderful lady who worked in the warehouse. I then met you when you would come in to visit and realized how much the stories I heard were true you are indeed one of the strongest women I have ever meant. Every single time you came in here you had one of the biggest smiles on your beautiful face a smile I can never forget. The brief times we seen each other and talked and laughed i will cherish them for they are memories of a wonderful person who is now in the presence of the Lord R.I.P Ragina gone but never forgotten.
