Heide Taylor lit a candle in honor of William.

May you rest peacefully in heaven along your sons. I wish I had more memory's to share. But my favorite memories was setting a the table and you we reading the paper and then you hand me the comics an grandma gave me a sheet of wax paper and for hours I set there imprinting the comics on the wax paper while you read the paper. That was the most time I ever spent with you but it was the best. Beside the whole frog incidents. You didn't like it much at all. But that was my favorite part about going to my grandparents you could always find frogs. Xoxo love you
