So disappointed I was unable to catch a flight to Houston today and will miss my Aunt's funeral. Tomorrow we lay to rest a wonderful person, my Aunt Robbie Jean Otts. Aunt Jean was a wonderful person and always made us feel loved and special. She had three sons so I became her favorite niece and I loved every minute we spent together. I will always have fond memories of the time our families were together and her amazing banana pudding. You will be missed. I love you.

My beautiful younger sister. What memories i have of us growing up together. We raised our children together. Most all of our young married years we lived within blocks of each other. After all these years we still spent precious time together. I will miss her so much. Love you, Nell
