Mr. Frank Anguiano

OCT 5, 1962 - DEC 26, 2016

Billy Joel quoted it best, “Only the Good Die Young.” Frank Anguiano died on December 26, 2016. Frank loved his football “Houston Texans”, sitting on the porch with his side kick Star, WWE wrestling, The Beatles, Snickers and Bud light. Not necessarily in that order.

He was a hard worker in construction. Frank had the power to befriend anyone. Frank loved to watch “Jose Luis Sincensura” and COPS. Al Pacino was his hero. And he was popo to David Mondragon Jr. Frank leaves behind his love, Rose Chavez. The other women of his life that he adored is his mother Olga Delavina Rodriguez and sisters Rose Anguiano, Paula Delgado and Sylvia Anguiano. He leaves behind his favorite brother Jose Rodriguez Jr, dad Jose Rodriguez Sr. and six nephews and three nieces.

Frank died at his home early Monday morning. He fought a long hard battle of pulmonary fibrosis. The doctors told him he had only a few weeks to live. He made them liars and gave us nine months. We hope you join us in celebrating the life of Frank Anguiano. Services will take place on the grounds of San Jacinto Memorial Park and Funeral Home. We will begin with visitation Thursday, December 29th from 2:00 pm until 8:00 pm and funeral service on Friday, December 30th at 10:00am.

Really god bless you too

He always wore a smile on his face. Even when times were tough or my Tia Paula was mad at him for something, he laughed it off. Said, " Life's to short to b so angry all the time" so very true. Ever since I was a little girl and our families hanging out together, he ALWAYS had a smile on his face. Rest now my dear. U earned ur right to do so. God rest your soul and bless all the family in this rough time.

Words cannot express my sympathy of the loss of Frank. He will be deeply missed by the Garcia famiy, the other families on Gainesville Street, and the neighborhood. He was a kind and friendly soul who made friends easily. I will always remember him walking to the store to buy his lotto tickets or walking Star around the nearby park. My dad used to visit Frank until he developed alzheimers. There was one time my dad had wandered off and we couldn't find him. We called the police and they had located him-sitting with Frank, on his porch. My dad had remembered where Frank lived. Little did our family know that would be the last time my dad would visit with Frank. My dad passed away this past May. I hope that Frank and my dad will see each other, free of sickness and pain. I will always remember Frank and his mischevious smile, walking with his Star and him sitting on his porch, waving as I walk by to the park. It's going to be hard to walk by your home knowing you're not there anymore. As I'm walking around the park, I hope he's looking down, smiling that smile that only Frank can do. God bless and Rest in peace, Frank. You'll be missed. Catherine, Chico, Maggie, & Chumley Garcia

It's so hard to share all my memories, I would need days to write them all, there are so many, however, I'm not sure why this one popped up, when we would take our road trips to Bishop/Corpus Christi, he always wanted to sit on top of the pillows and blankets, so it could look like he was the tallest one in the car, and now you are the tallest, the clouds are your pillows/blankets in heaven and I'm proud to call you my guardian angel, Frank was the kindest, take his shirt off his back kind of man, and very humble...and he loved kids so much, all he had to do was sit on his porch and before you knew it, there were people there, he has lots of friends that love him, he also has a best friend that loved him very much, Rose Chavez, I can't imagine being with someone for so long and now to come home to a quiet house, I'm sure it will be hard for her, I'll pray for your strength, I thank her for taking care of our brother, we love you Rose, and my brother Jr., I don't know what we would have done without him, thank you my baby brother for giving up your life to take care of Frank, you stepped up and cared for him and that's probably why we had him with us as long as we did, I love you so much, thank all our friends and family that have been texting, calling and posting, it means a lot to our family
