I got to see mom this morning while I was sleeping. She was in her bed and I got to hug her. She told me she thought she was going to be ok but then wasn't. I told her I loved her so much and she said she missed me and I woke up! ❤️😊

" To My amazing, remarkable mother. Everywhere I journey in life, I will go with your love by my side. Forever you will be with me. Truly, joyfully, and more meant to be than words could ever say. You are the sunshine that I carry in my heart, the source of my dearest memories, the inspiration for my fondest wishes, and the sweetest present life could ever give to anyone. I am so proud to have had you as my mother. I'll always love you, and i couldn't be more proud of you if i tried. Every time I see a flower I'm reminded of you and grandma. The primary song "I often go walking" brings me to tears as I reflect on the last 2 lines," For if I love blossoms and meadows and walking, I learned how to love them, dear mother, from you". Your loving daughter Carol, forever

So glad you could come to the viewing in spite of your boss giving you 0 bereavement time for the funeral.

"I have loved thee with an everlasting love." Jeremiah 31:3 Time, space, nor death will separate you from me. I carry your love in my heart & your influence in the way that I love others in my actions. I carry your shared wisdom in my mind as you always told me to never let anyone run over me. I carry your laughter in my memories & your smile within my mind. I carry your afghan that you crocheted with your sweet little hands in my hands. Mostly I carry you within my soul as once my soul met yours we were joined in love, friendship & family. You Maw-Maw will always be with me in the sunshine & the rain because a flower needs both to grow...you taught me that. I love, love, love you, my sweet. Love Always Jackie Ann (Jacque Bailey)
