We will miss Joy at Calvary Baptist. She was an avid Bible student, and everyone was always glad to see her there. We have already missed her during the time she has been sick, and we were expecting her to return. We are sad at the loss of her friendship but happy for her promotion. My wife Vickie has drawn particularly close to Joy during the times we visited her in the hospital and at the rehabilitation center or spoke to her on the phone, and she misses her profoundly. Joy really had a keen sense of humor and a positive attitude as she insisted on continuing her everyday business and going on with her life as best she could from her bed. She loved her family, church and friends. I know they will also miss her at the Jacinto City Senior Center. Our sincere sympathies to the family, our prayers are with you. Mrs Joy she came to our family gathering and of course we no longer considered her a guest but family many days and times Mrs Joy made us laugh and she took care of my son Fred as her own. This is when you know someone is special when she loves and care for your child Thanks Shane for sharing Mrs Joy with us. Laughter and Joy was ours when she was around.
