God Saw You

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, So He put His arms around you and whispered come to me.

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away,
And though we loved you dearly we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

My Aunt Mary had the best laugh!! I heard it quite often as a child and later into adulthood. I hear it now as I write this. I spent a lot of time at Aunt Mary and Uncle Coy's home as a youngin'. Always tagging along behind my beautiful cousin Toni. Aunt Mary always made me feel special. Always made sure I was included. She was a joy. So thankful she is with Granny now. Those two are an unstoppable pair. Prayers of comfort and peace for all those blessed by Aunt Mary during her time here with us. Love you Aunt Mary.

I think my favorite memory of Mary was last year when we visited her home. We sat at the kitchen table and just talked. It was really the first time that it was just us. Usually there were lots of relatives around, which was always fun. But this time we connected heart to heart. We shared stories about our kids, grandkids and husbands (brothers to each other and sons of our dear Granny!) We shed a couple of tears and laughed together as never before. I love you Mary. God speed and God bless. Your sister in law, Jeannie Mccullough

Coy, Toni and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Mary was one of the sweetest caring people I've known. It has been a great pleasure having her as our neighbor. She will be greatly missed. Oh how she would light up and have a little giggle for her Elvis. Prayers for you all, Teresa and Ronnie Campbell.
