I loved my Tio Lupe so much!!! I remember seeing him outside working in the yard or going to pick up his mail. My daughters and I would go say hello whenever we saw him. I loved to hear him reminisce about my Daddy and mom. I have wonderful memories of my Tio Lupe. He has gone home now reunited with my Daddy and his other family members who have gone before him but he will always have a special place in my heart and both of my daughter's hearts. He will be missed dearly. I pray for my Tia Maria and my cousins that the Lord grant them peace, strength, and may He comfort them during this difficult time. Much love for my Tio Lupe's loved ones. Til we meet again Tio...Sincerely your niece, Anita Rodriguez
