I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun of happy memories
that I leave behind when day is done.

Sharon.... Thank you so much for being such a good friend !! Your flowers were beautiful too. So busy now have 14 people staying at my house. I'm the stopping point between Denver and Houston.... So I'm whipping up breakfast burritos for in the morning, but I will speak to you soon.

I remember when we were in High School, ;and we were seeing young men in Davidson, Oklahoma we would leave school during our break from finals, and drive as fast as we could to Davidson and pull them out of school pretending to be their cousins from out of town, and spend time with them for a while, and then drive back as fast as we could for our next test, and we barely made it back in time for our next test. we have been friends since the 1st grade, and I could tell so many memories. I also remember a time when we were riding bicycles, and mine was taller so she ask me to change bikes with her in which I did and rode by another one of our friends house, in which she had ad big dog, and by the way Sherry did not tell me the dog would come out and chase you she just told me to go by that house very fast, so I was going as fast as I could, and all of a sudden here he come, I had to hold my legs up so he would not bite my leg. When I caught up to her she was cracking up, and that made me laugh as well. We shared many good times and bad times together. I will never forget her smile, laughter, or her face. And when it comes my time to be called home she will meet me in heaven. I also know that she loved her children and grandchildren, her siblings, parents, and her grandmother with all her heart and sole. Go fly with the angles now and I will meet you it the by and by.

I can't believe your gone. You and I talked about this and we would laugh and say that we would go together. But I guess God has different plans, because I'm still here. Sherry and I have been friends for many years. We both went through losing our husbands and we both came down with the same auto immune diseases. I would visit her as much as I could thinking I would cheer her up, but if you know Sherry it would end up being the other way around. She had such a beautiful laugh, I can still hear it now in my mind. She had a love for the Lord that was her strength. She could read straight through the Bible more than anyone I knew. She loved talking about her Lord. Now she is with Him and no longer stuck in that chair or that frail body. I know see is happy and having a great reunion with her husband and son and her parents. Miss you, will see you again one day. Your friend Barbara Toepoel

I still can't believe your gone! It feels just like yesterday we were sitting on the couch watching scary movies and eating pickles or when I was younger and we used to eat pea soup together. Those are memories I will never forget and will carry with me through my life. I love you so much and I am going to miss you more than words can describe. Until we meet again mema!

It's so hard to put into words all the memories I have of my sweet Sister Sherry. She was my best friend for 64 years. We took so many trips and had so many adventures and laughed the whole time ... from St. Thomas and the Bahamas to Alaska and the cruise to see the glaciers. We went to the Napa and Sonoma Valleys in California. Had fun in Chicago. Flew to Toronto and drove to Niagra Falls. Decided on a whim to go and drive through all the New England States. We chased Stephen King in Maine and ate lobster rolls. We hit Las Vegas many times as well as Reno and Lake Tahoe. California from top to bottom. Drove through the Everglades all the way down to Key West. ...and many other places as well !! I am going to miss you forever Sherry. Already my hand reaches out to make our daily phone calls. Come get me when it's my time to cross over. I'll be so glad to see you and we can go on the greatest adventure ever !! Love you Baby Girl . I'm glad your suffering is at an end but it tears my heart out that you are gone.Love Always,Lona
