It's hard going outside and not seeing Jerry on his scooter and taking the dog for a ride. Always a smile on his face and a kind word to anyone he saw. He was always the go to if you were working on something and couldn't figure it out. His heart was as big as Texas and he has been like a father to me for over 30 years. I will miss him until we meet again.

I'm going to miss you Pops. Thank you for taking me into the family when i was a kid and making me feel like I belonged. You'll never know how much that meant to me. Even after all these years that never changed. You were my Pops then and you always will be. I love you. Rest and Be at peace Pops.
