Afterglow
I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.

Oh man , . I know I can not take away the hurt or the pain, but I hope you know that you and ur family are very special to me. I will pray for you and you families strength and peace. Your father was one of the nicest people with the best sense of humor and I know that he was a great dad too. No matter wherever he is, he'll always be watching over ALL OF you. He will stay with you forever. We learned many things from him, especially strength and stability. May he Rest In Peace and let's celebrate his memories that he has left in our hearts !!! ~Lina Medina

Dad, knowing that your presence will no longer be here on this crazy earth hurts me so much. The memories I have of you, will be forever cherished deep down in my heart. Things will never be the same without you. I love you dad and may God test your soul!

Daddy!! Oh so many memories... taking off your stinky boots after a long day of work, grabbing your bush beer and taking a sip 🍺 before sitting on the couch watching WWF, hanging off of one leg while you walked, jumping on your work truck from the stop sign all the way back home, when you almost chopped off your leg at work bandaged it up and went back to work the very next day, when you bought me my first car, when you saw me walk across that stage to get my diploma, when you held your premature grandson Isaiah, and last but not least all the advice you gave me, its what made me become the adult I am now. Carrying these memories with me forever love you dad!!! 😊 ❤️ Your daughter, Jessica Delgado
