Eddie Andrew "Poncho" Damon

AUG 6, 1948 - MAR 22, 2021

On Monday, March 22nd, 2021 at age 72 Eddie Andrew Damon (affectionately known to friends and family as Poncho) joined his mother Virginia Van Epp his Father Eddie Damon, his sister and brother Donna and Patrick Damon, son Jeffrey Damon, and grandson Brandon Parker in the Kingdom of Heaven. He is survived by his wife of 26 years Veronica Damon as well as his daughters Stephanie Miller, Tricia Parks, Josephine Carden, Jessica Lara and son Bryan Damon. He is also survived by 14 beautiful grandchildren and 2 adorable great-grandchildren. Poncho spent 47 years working for the ILA local 24 as a longshoreman, dock crane and Paceco operator and he loved his time there as well as the friends he made along the way. When he wasn't working he was a skilled and avid fisherman who enjoyed offshore boat trips and catching giant brag worthy fish that most people only see in photos or hear about. If he wasn't fishing he could possibly be found deer hunting and even capturing rattlesnakes with his best friends. Poncho lived a larger than life life that will be remembered by us all with a good belly laugh when we reminisce about our times with him. Anyone lucky enough to have known him can attest to the fact that he possessed an infectious laugh, quick and witty sarcastic remarks and always had a joke to tell that was guaranteed to make you laugh until you cry. He may be making folks in Heaven laugh now, but he will never be forgotten by those lucky enough to have known him here.

I was all of 18 the last time I saw my cousin Poncho but I can still see his face in front of me as clearly as I can see my own sons as there is no mistaking those Damon eyes. Growing up he was the the go to guy to get the big cousins out of trouble with his charming ways. And if Donna and I couldn't get our way with everybody else, well we could count on Ponchos big heart. Larger than life, storyteller extraordinaire, a charmer and a heart to match. It fills me with so much pride and happiness to know that he is remembered like that to this day by everyone he has known throughout his life. God bless and comfort you all in your time of loss. Aloha 'oe dear cousin, 'til we meet again. Edda Lee, Elizabeth, and Keoki.

Well bud we always discussed who would stand over the others grave looks like I will be the one. We should have written our book of our adventures as there are many if it was in book form people who would read it would ask how 2 guys could get into so many difficult situations and still be buds here is to 57 years of friendship. If I had one word to describe Poncho it would be "storyteller". His stories grew each time he told them getting funnier and more exaggerated. I remember him showing up at our house early one Saturday morning. He and a friend had tried to hustle pool with the wrong ones, and ended up locked in the bar storeroom overnight. He had one shoe with no idea what happened to the other. My mom wanted to reprimand him, but couldn't help laughing too. He could always turn on the charm and sweet talk her into just about anything. Although a hunter, he always had a soft side bringing home all kinds of animals, usually injured. We were fortunate to have grown up closely with our double cousins which were more like our brothers, and have endless fond memories of our adventures. Veronica, I know he loved you deeply and cherished the time with you. You made him very happy. I'm so sorry for your loss.

Thank you for the kind words. I posted some pictures of Poncho's rescue squirrel he decided to keep and a note between him and Mimi. Mimi wrote the bottom part first and Poncho responded with the top part (as a kid).

To be sure Poncho is one of the good guys. Haven't seen him in many many years but have never forgot his laughter and gentle manners. Life flies by so fast! Virginia loved her baby girl Donna and her two sons Pat and Poncho. Now they are all together again for eternity. God is truly great!
