Melva graduated from Elbert L. Furr Jr.- Sr. High School, January 1962 months after it was built. She was among the small senior class of graduates the year Furr HS opened after transferring from Austin High School to the location closer to her family home. This first senior class was able to select the school colors, mascot, motto, and a number of other firsts.

Melva enjoyed cooking family dinners, being out-doors doing yard work, fishing, driving, playing tennis, volleyball and badminton, live theater, traveling, and spending time with family and friends. Melva loved being with her sons and their families. Being left a young widow after twelve and a half years of marriage with two young boys to raise, she knew the need of instilling a Christian upbringing and the importance of dedicating her sons to the Lord and committing them back into God's hands. Over the years, she said many prayers on their behalf for God to guide and protect them. Melva was always there to support and encourage her children..

Melva retired from Alamo Title Company December, 2003 where she worked in accounting. She made numerous friends, neighborhood, school and co-workers who have kept in touch with her through the years. She also worked the election polls until she was no longer able due to other responsibilities. She had a fun playful nature, loved to laugh, and her laughter was contagious. Melva was a person of her word. If she said she would do something, you could count on her.

Melva handled adversities with grace and dignity. She never complained or said, "Why me?" She would pray and ask for God's help and strength... Melva is not alone or in pain and that is comforting to us. Our hearts are broken; we love and miss you Melva. Although you are gone, you will always remain in our hearts. We thank God for giving us such a strong determined sister. You fought the good fight, now it is time to rest and reap your reward. God bless you precious Melva. ...until we see you again.

...No eye has seen, No ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love Him. 1 Corinthians 2:9 NLT

Melva and I were sis friends for 71 years. We met at 8 years old when I moved across the street from the Ivey's. That finally became my home away from home. I only had a brother 8 years older and Melva became my best friend sister. We grew up attached at the hip. I was there when her sisters were born. Loved them and their brothers. I will miss her so much but as I told her before she passed , she will greet me in heaven and we will be with other again. Loved her so much as my sister I never had
