My condolences to his family. We worked together for a few years and spent many lunches chatting about our families more specifically our children. He loved his grand babies. Shared picture often. He was a proud grandpa. He was a sweet, funny, generous and kind- hearted man. Thank you Joe, for the laughs and fun memories."

My condolences to Joe's family. Many of us started school with Joe since kindergarten. He always had a peaceful, quiet and kind spirit. To remember Joe is to reminis back to the 60's when for years he would walk in front of my older sisters and I in the mornings to get to Bowie. Rest in the arms of Our Heavenly Father lifelong classmate. †

Joe was a good friend. We met in elementary school and continued being friends through high school graduation. As is the case with most of our childhood friends we lost touch. I'm glad he went on and had a wonderful life and will be missed by his dear family and friends.
