Will always remember your laugh and loving heart, I could always tell when you knew you had a perfect shot from the sound of your giggle. The memory of you will always put a smile on this " kid's " (a nick name you had for all of us) face.

I love you dad. I am so lucky and thankful for the wonderful life you provided me. We always had laughter, love and each other. I am so proud to call you dad and of how hard you worked to give us a great life. You were a man of many talents or prite near genius most of us would (be forced) say. You were a gas attendant, fireman, EMT, ac man, a foreman, business man, father, husband, brother, son, grandfather, best pool player in the world(again forced) everyone would say, uncle, almost a doctor, almost a wrestler and always a comedian. I miss you so much already I just want to laugh with you, talk with you and hug you a little longer. (Forced) oh and you were an amazing dancer...no one could do a robot like you. Really I mean no one. You were an amazing, fun, caring, loving super dad and my life will be forever changed without you. I love you, I miss you and I'm never gonna stop needing you, so until we see each other again save my spot. I want the one right next to you...
