Sandra Lee Smyth

MAR 19, 1946 - AUG 15, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Sandra L. Smyth, a remarkable woman who touched the lives of many with her unwavering dedication, selflessness, and indomitable spirit. Sandra peacefully departed this world on August 15, 2023, at the age of 77, leaving behind a legacy that will forever be etched in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Sandra was born on March 19, 1946, in Orange, Texas, to the proud parents Earl Horn and Vera Frank. She was a loving and caring sister, surviving her is her sister Glenda Marlene Schoubroek. Sandra's early life was marked by a strong sense of duty and patriotism, which led her to join the United States Army in January 1976, where she served with distinction as a communication specialist.

On September 28, 1984, Sandra entered a beautiful union of love and companionship, marrying Herbert Smyth in Liberty, Texas. Their marriage was a testament to the enduring power of love, and together they shared countless precious moments.

Sandra's life was a tapestry woven with threads of courage, service, and adventure. Her heart led her to become a Forest Ranger, a role in which she safeguarded and nurtured the natural world she held so dear. Her dedication knew no bounds, as she also selflessly volunteered as a firefighter, placing herself in harm's way to protect her community. Her exceptional marksmanship skills exemplified her precision and determination, making her a true force to be reckoned with.

Sandra was not only a pillar of strength in her professional life but also a devoted member of Uvalde Baptist Church. Her faith was the cornerstone of her character, guiding her actions and inspiring her to be a beacon of kindness and compassion to all those around her.

Beyond her extraordinary achievements, Sandra was a woman of simple joys and hobbies. She found solace and pleasure in the pages of books, spending hours engrossed in tales that transported her to different worlds. The great outdoors called to her adventurous spirit, and she cherished moments spent camping, breathing in the fresh air, and connecting with nature. Puzzles became both a pastime and a metaphor for her life, each piece representing a different experience, challenge, or triumph.

Sandra's memory lives on in the hearts of those she leaves behind. Her sister Glenda Marlene Schoubroek, along with her nieces and nephew, Jimmy Schoubroek, Tonia Eddins, and Cynthia Proulx, mourn her loss deeply, yet find solace in the cherished memories they shared with her.
