Claretha Althea Billingslea

DEC 21, 1964 - MAY 5, 2024

Claretha Althea Billingslea, a beloved business consultant, passed away on May 5, 2024, in Channelview, Texas. She was 59 years old.

Born on December 21, 1964, in West Palm Beach, Florida, Claretha was the daughter of George Billingslea and Doris C. Williams. Her life was marked by passion, love, and service to others.

Claretha had an adventurous spirit and a love for travel. She explored different countries, immersing herself in diverse cultures. Her culinary skills were unmatched; she enjoyed cooking and had a special fondness for Caribbean cuisine. The sound of waves crashing against the shore brought her joy, and she relished spending time by the water, especially at the beach.

Her love for food extended beyond cooking—she had a sweet tooth and adored pastries. But above all, Claretha cherished her family. Her nieces and nephews held a special place in her heart, and she was a devoted godmother to Morgan Clark. Claretha's faith was unwavering, and she found fulfillment in serving God and His ministry.

Claretha leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and kindness. She is survived by her siblings: Annie L. McClendon and her spouse, Michael McClendon; Maethenia Jordan; and Lisa T. Butler. Additionally, she is remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, and her beloved goddaughter, Morgan Clark.

In honor of Claretha's memory, let us celebrate her life and the impact she made on those around her. May her soul rest in eternal peace.

There are very few tears on my face as compared to that which is in my heart. How? Why? When? I may never know. I miss you my dear friend. You were unique and a very beautiful lady. Rest well in the Lord - you stood for everything that was Godly.
