Hello Mom, Christmas has passed, mama I miss you so much I don't want to be selfish, but I wish you were here. I'm a full grown woman and I need you. your always on my mind. I love you so much. They say that it gets easier through time. I don't believe it because it has not.. I wanna hold you. I wanna talk to you. I wanna hug you and kiss you. I miss taking you breakfast lunch and dinner. I don't even go to the house anymore. It's a disaster anyhow it's a pigsty from here sidewalk all the way to the back of the property. I'm so sorry. But when we were young, or should I say when I was younger, our home always was clean from the windows to the floors, the smell of that Pine-Sol on the wooden floors. The windows open we will go outside and mow the grass and trim the trees. Those were beautiful times and I thank you I thank you for everything that you taught me and your good morals that you instilled to me. And I have . The windows open we will go outside and mow the grass and trim the trees. Those were beautiful times and I thank you I thank you for everything that you taught me and you're good morals that you instilled to me. And I have passed those on down to your grandson. Mama, you would be so proud of him mom I respect you and I love you profoundly words can't even express how much I love you the lessons the teachings that you gave me when you thought that I wasn't listening I was I just want to say that if I had the opportunity to be your child again I would if I could see your face and hold you and talk to you and listen to your voice and your laughter it would be definitely God's blessing. Until we are together again, Mom I send you strong hugs kisses in my words, telling you that I love you forever.

My dear sweet mom , I miss you so much. I wrote another message to you it didn't type out the way I actually said. It was supposed to say I guess I'm not doing to good of a job. Mom, I want to hug you feel your warmth and kiss you. I struggle day by day month to month. I think of you so much I reminisce of our times together. Think of you morning, noon and night. I love you so much. I miss you terribly it is so painful being here without you.. but I know I'm stuck here until our good Lord says otherwise. You know they say that when one pass away . You going into a deep sleep . You don't remember anything. But Mom, I hope you & dad remember me. I don't know in my mind. I think when I pass, I want to be reunited with you and dad my family. I miss y'all so much first it was dad and now you. But Mom, I appreciate and I respect you & your hard work dad's hard work. Both of y'all sacrifices. Thanksgiving is next week and I don't know what to do. I am hurt you're not here. Your turkey, the turkey dressing and all the side dishes. I hope you're still here with us in spirit. You are such a good mother, loving kind person . You are much loved. Talk to you later, mama I love you.

My dear, lovely mother, who I miss so much her touch, her smile, her laughter, her voice, her smile, her hugs and sweet kisses. Such a beautiful loving, caring lady and most of all my dear mother. I love you, mom ❤️👤 I wish you were here with me, but I know you were tired. Working day in and out. From a young child and into your last days. May the good Lord grant us to be with each other again one day. Not one day goes by that it is easy. Life has changed without you. I still cry for you. And I miss you dearly. I love you, mama

Hi Mamma good morning. Yesterday morning, while I was asleep, you came to me , you got very close to my face and said, Mija I seen you in color, very vivid and you were healthy. Your complexion was illuminating Rosy your cheeks , beautiful smile and your eyes were healthy. When I heard your voice and seen your face, I woke up and you disappeared. I should've just kept my eyes closed, but I was excited to see you here and your voice say on your face I open my eyes. So I remember when I was a little girl You used to tell me if anybody who has passed on comes to me. Pray for them and that is exactly what I did. I started. Praying praying for you and thanking you for coming to see me mama. I love you and I miss you. You're on my mind every day honestly.. Please come back and see me again and thank you. May God bless you in your new life. ♥️🙏

Good morning, Mamma just want to say that I still wish you were here with me. I love you and I miss you so much. I think of you every day you even come to me in my dreams. Waking up the dream is over when I open my eyes. I just laid there. I want to recapture the moment. It's been pretty difficult without you. I don't go to Taco Bell anymore. I guess it's because I know that I'm not gonna order anything for you. So what is the use of even going. When I ate Taco Bell it's because I was going to order you something. I miss sitting at the table and eating with you talking with you. I just listen to you. I remember the sound of your voice, your facial features the smell of your skin and the warmth of your body. I miss kissing you on the forehead on the cheek, hugging you and messing with your hair. I know that there is supposedly after life on earth there is a new life spirit form . I know because I have caught many orbs with my phone. So I know that there is spirits here on earth. I would love to know you are right shining orb go wherever you wanna go and free . Sending you a big hug and kiss. I love you, my sweet dear mom . Love you always your daughter Eliza Arredondo.

Good afternoon, my dear lovely mamma 🥹 thinking of you and love you so much! I sure do miss you. I cry from time to time. i'm thinking of you very often like every day morning and night. I never wanted you to leave me . I remember being a child and I used to tell you, mom I'm scared. I never want to be apart . But I remember you loving words that you would tell me . well, I don't wanna leave you either although there is an afterlife. Spiritually I will always be with you, you said. Although my heart would break so profoundly a horrible feeling in my heart, my eyes would water up. And you would tell me don't cry. Everything's gonna be okay. Yeah, I would just snuggle into your side while you would talk to me or read the Bible at night. You always told me to have faith in Jesus and his father the higher power thank you mama. I'm sending you big hugs and kisses. I love you so much.

Good morning mama I was thinking of you course you're on my mind frequently. I went to visit your resting place yesterday morning. The dust has settled and they've actually cleaned up around there. Looks a lot better.. Mamma when I get sad and lonely, heartbroken and tearful, it can be whether I'm at home or at work and the grocery store just driving down the street. You pop into my mind and I'm happy too. Think of you. I remember the good Times. We had the little things that you would do whether it was just joking around or, giving me advice we just sitting around just enjoying each other's company. From way back from when I was a little child I remember you being there different scenarios different occasions. I'm sad that you're not here with me, but I know that you're happy with dad and your relatives. I know that you are at peace you're not hurting or suffering here in this world. I do tear up and get emotional, but I feel an ease and warmth and all of a sudden, something from the past a good memory in my mind comes up of you and I'll stop crying and the pain goes away . I honestly believe it is you embracing me and reassuring me that you're fine. And you don't want me to be sad. Thank you, mama but I sure do miss you. I love you forever and always and eternity. Rest in peace my dear lovely mother. Thank you, mama.♥👤

There is a God. Whether she was helping parents take their children to the doctor. Transporting people to the airport, sometimes with peoples Romance and happy family life. Many of those people are still married today. Mother is a good person. God made her strong ! There will never be another person like my mother. I am honored and privileged to have been her daughter. I will miss her, but she has lived a grand life full circle and now it's time for her to relax & Rest. Forever more I love you, my dear mother ❤️👤
