Bolanos, Pablo Antonio

SEP 28, 1995 - OCT 3, 2024

Pablo Bolanos, 29, of Houston, Texas, passed away on October 3, 2024. Born on September 28, 1995, to Ana Zuniga, Pablo was a beloved son, father, and uncle.

Pablo was a dedicated soccer coach who not only raised funds for his team but also helped his nephews excel in competitive soccer. In his free time, he had a passion for anime, especially shows like Yu-Gi-Oh! and Dragon Ball Z; and as a young man he was quite popular in the places that he grew up. He had a deep love and appreciation for the song “Tennessee Whiskey”, demanding it be played at family functions, and enjoyed cooking delicious meals such as gumbo, barbecue, shrimp, and brisket for fundraisers and family gatherings.

Above all, Pablo’s greatest joy was his family. He worked tirelessly to provide a good life for his children. Above all, he is remembered fondly by how he treated people and cared for everyone he was close to. He is survived by his children; Julian Bolanos, Emmery Bolanos, and Ameera Bolanos; his loving mother, Ana Zuniga; and his grandmother Socorro Navarro.

Pablo’s warmth, dedication, and love for his family and community will be deeply missed. He is remembered fondly by all who knew him, especially by those who called him Uncle and Brother.
