Tullock, Aaron Michael

OCT 17, 1984 - JAN 6, 2025

With hearts full of love and cherished memories, we celebrate the vibrant life of Aaron Michael Tullock, who brought joy and laughter to all who knew him.

Born on October 17th, 1984, in Pasadena, Texas, Aaron grew up with a heart full of curiosity and compassion. His enthusiasm for online games showcased his adventurous spirit, and his love for animals reflected his gentle nature.

A resident of Galena Park, Texas, Aaron treasured every moment spent with family and friends. Whether immersing himself in the digital worlds of online games or sharing laughter at family gatherings, Aaron's warmth touched the lives of many.

He leaves behind his beloved mother Katrina Rose Tullock, father Robert Tullock, and stepfather Leonard Hobson, who were constant sources of love and support in his life. His sisters Katy Deschenes and Angela Fredrick. His girlfriend Caryn Vancantfort and her two children Jaidyn France and James France.

Aaron's zest for life and the joy he spread will continue to inspire all who knew him. As we remember his infectious smile and the happy moments we shared, we celebrate the beautiful life he lived.

I've been sitting around remembering childhood memories. How grandmother called you Aaron Itis, how you picked on us and grandmother chased you down the road with a twig while you laughed hysterically. I remember endless games and family gatherings and your laugh and smile. You will be missed and remembered always. Love to all the family hurting and missing you.-Andrea Nguyen
