Maggie J Broadway Foulch

SEP 9, 1935 - FEB 20, 2025

Maggie J. Broadway Foulch, 89, of Houston, Texas, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2025, in Webster, Texas. Born on September 9, 1935, to Samuel and Della Broadway in Shelbyville, Texas, Maggie lived a life filled with love, faith, and creativity.

For over 40 years, Maggie was a devoted member of the Channelview Tabernacle, where her presence was a source of warmth and inspiration to many. Her love for gardening brought beauty and tranquility to her home, while her talent for playing the piano filled it with music and joy. Maggie's hands were never idle, as she found great pleasure in crafting, creating cherished pieces that will be treasured by her family for generations.

Maggie is survived by her loving daughters, Sheila Foulch Gamez and Pamela Servin Luna, who carry forward her legacy of love and kindness. She is also survived by her seven grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren, each of whom brought immense joy to her life.

She is preceded in passing by her beloved husband, Richard Lewell Foulch; her son, Richard Lee Foulch Sr.; her great-grandson, Gavin Foulch; and her brothers, Cole, Hugh, Guy, Forest, and Ted Broadway. Their memories will forever be cherished in the hearts of those who knew and loved them.

Maggie's life was a testament to the power of love, faith, and creativity. She will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. May her soul rest in eternal peace.
