Moore, Donna

OCT 29, 1951 - MAR 8, 2025

Donna was born on October 29, 1951, in Fort Wayne, Indiana, and in the years that followed, she built a life defined by hard work, deep connections, and an ever-present warmth that made everyone around her feel valued. She moved to Caldwell, Texas, in 1965, graduating from Caldwell High School before setting her sights on Houston. There, she carved out a remarkable 50-plus-year career in the Title Insurance industry, demonstrating not only her dedication but also the intelligence and perseverance that made her such an asset to those she worked with.

But beyond her professional success, Donna's true legacy is found in the love she shared with her family and friends. She was the kind of person who always had a smile on her face, no matter the circumstance. She had a gift for making others feel seen, heard, and appreciated. To know Donna was to know kindness in its purest form. She never met a person who didn't like her, and that was because she greeted the world with an open heart and an endless capacity for compassion.

She was preceded in death by her loving parents, Frances and Donald Leach, as well as her brothers Larry, Denny, and Dick Leach, and her sister-in-law Betty Leach. While we grieve their loss, we take comfort in knowing they have been reunited.

She leaves behind a family who adored her: her daughter Kimberly Kirby, her grandson Colten Watley and Tabitha Sturrock, her great-grandson Carter Rae Watley, and the soon-to-arrive great-granddaughter Camryn Watley. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Beverly Leach, nieces Lora Layman and Debra Cooke, and nephews Jeff, Greg, and Mike Leach. They, along with so many others, were blessed by her love, laughter, and wisdom.

Donna's life was a testament to the power of kindness. She taught us all, in the simplest yet most profound ways, that a kind word, a warm smile, or a listening ear could make all the difference. While she has now gained her wings, her spirit will live on in the countless lives she touched.

Today, we say goodbye, but we do so with gratitude—for the moments we shared, the love she gave, and the example she set. May we honor her memory by living as she did—with warmth, generosity, and a heart always open to others.

Donna, I found many pictures of you that were left behind. They were of some of the men in your lifetime. I know you were married twice and divorced. One marriage dissolved from physical abuse and another was from cheating and other relationships ended in death from motorcycle accidents and boating accidents. I know you looking for true love and gave your heart to them as you gave to me. When I came to you Donna I only wanted you and poured my love into your heart and still love today. I wanted you to know that my love was true and sincere and eternal for you Donna. I know you are in Heaven and hope to see you Donna and my wife Linda when I pass. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, it is now October, 2025 with your birthday near. I want you to know that the pain and suffering you endured in the home next to my home are being addressed. The house you rented is being completely renovated from new carpet, new toilets, new electrical box, removing the rotten deck, renovation of the kitchen and bathrooms and more. No one would rent the place you lived in until your death. I am sorry you endured the mental pain of the rental house as well as the pain and suffering from your cancer. I know you are in Heaven in a house built by the Lord and look forward to be with you and Linda when I pass. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, today I went to Mass and the Priest explained that we have a Guardian Angel helping to guide us in our life. I told him of the items I found of yours that were left behind. I told him that someone was guiding me to your mother Frances' Bible, and other Bibles, as well as photos of you Donna, your mother Frances and your father Donald. These are memories for your daughter, your grandson, and your great grandchildren. They are also memories for your last true love Chuck. I truly believe that you Donna, and my wife Linda will reunite in Heaven with me. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, allot of your personal affects were left behind during Kim's move from your home next to me. As we discussed in the past you and we're planning to take many items to charity. I fulfilled that promise to you and during this time I found many photos of you and the people you loved. I also found your mother Frances' Bible.

Your mother was a religious woman and believed in the Lord Almighty. I had a feeling that you were directing me to find this items. These items are cherished memories of you Donna and the people you loved in your lifetime. I thank the Lord I found them and will give them to Kim your daughter for safe keeping.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, it has been 6 months since you went to Heaven. Your daughter will now plan your head stone which will next to your mom and dad. Since you passed Justin and I have visited you weekly on Sundays after I prayed for you at Mass. Many times I went to confession and asked for forgiveness of my sins when I would disagree about your care. My love for you was and is genuine and deep. Please hold me close to your heart in Heaven. I love you.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, your daughter has left the home you were at for 10years. You and I were good neighbors and worked together at the wood pile and became good friends. Know that she is gone I feel another loss from you. Colton came by yesterday to take some items from you and I told him how much I loved you and he said he knew how much I loved you Donna. I asked him to work together with Kim and this would be what Donna would want more than anything from them. My heart aches now with the loss of these connections to you Donna.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Donna, since you went to Heaven it has been dead calm at the lake. I use to call you from the lake when you were in the hospital and it would be quite windy. I miss those days of being with you even though you were dealing with your cancer. I loved you no matter what as long as you were alive to be with me. I know this is selfish but it is how I feel about you. Today I had Mass for you Donna and Linda. This Mass is with the Sacred Heart Catholic School that Linda was a PreK Teacher. It was also for the children's Grandparents. The Mass was full with Parents, Teachers, and Grandparents. The Mass was very joyfull and the sermon was about family and the bonds that help us grow in faith of the Lord. I know that you Donna and Linda had a strong bond with your family. I hope both of you felt the joy of this Mass for you and your family. May the Lord bless you Donna and Linda and your families.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Poem for Donna Lynn Moore
Donna, brave and bright,
Succumbed to cancer's night.
Chuck, her love, stood near,
Banishing all fear.
Forever etched, their bond so true,
A love that forever saw them through.

Poem for Donna Lynn Moore
In shadows deep, where pain held sway,
Donna fought fierce, then slipped away.
But Chuck, her love, a constant flame,
Stood by her side, whispered her name.
Now free from pain, a spirit bright,
She dwells in peace, in endless light.
Their love, a bond that death can't sever,
Chuck by her side, forever and ever.

With Chuck, her true love, by her side,
In love's embrace, her spirit soared and died.
Donna healed Chuck's heart, a balm so true,
After loss, she brought him solace anew.
A future planned, a dream they shared,
Now heaven's peace, for her, is prepared.
May peace find Chuck, though grief may stay,
Knowing Donna's love lights every way.
Her memory lives, a beacon bright,
Shining on, in eternal light.

Poem for Donna Lynn Moore
A heart of light, a gentle hand,
Donna came, a healing balm across the land.
For Chuck, she chased the shadows of his grief,
A love reborn, a sweet, renewed belief.
New dreams they wove, a future bright and bold,
Of home and peace, a story to unfold.
Though illness claimed her, cruel and unconfined,
Her loving spirit forever with him entwined.
May peace be hers, beyond all earthly pain,
And Chuck find solace till they meet again.
Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Poem for Donna Lynn MooreA bond was forged in sorrow's fire,Chuck, by Donna's side, his heart's desire.He'd known loss, Donna fought the fight,Together they found a hopeful light.A future planned, a home, a vow,Love bloomed, though fate would disallow.Cancer's shadow, cruel and deep,Stole the dreams they longed to keep.Hand in hand, until the last,Their love a truth, forever cast.Though silent now, her gentle breath,Chuck's love remains, defying death.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Poem for Donna Lynn Moore
A whisper soft, a fading breath,
Donna slipped away,
embraced by death.
Cancer's cruel hand, a final plea,
Chuck held her close, for all to see.
His last true love, his guiding star,
Left him alone, with an open scar.
He'd known this pain, this bitter sting,
When his first love, too, took cancer's swing.
A future planned, now turned to dust,
In shattered hopes, and broken trust.
Lost in the quiet, where memories gleam,
Chuck walks alone, in love's sad dream.

Her spirit, though dimmed by cancer's touch,
Shone brightly for Chuck, her last true love.
He, who knew the same cruel parting,
Walked with her to the edge, his heart entwined with hers.
Now, he stands adrift, a love twice lost,
His future, once painted with Donna's smile,
Faded to memory, a silent ache.
Comfort him, Lord, in this profound grief.
May he find solace in the love they shared,
And in the time, discover a path through this deep sorrow. Amen."

Donna's Echo
The silence hangs, a heavy cloak,
Where laughter used to brightly spoke,
A cancer's touch, a cruel, cold hand,
Took Donna home, to promised land.
But memories bloom, a vibrant hue,
Of moments shared, forever true.
Donna's gentle smile, a guiding light,
Illuminates the darkest night.
The scent of Donna, a sweet perfume,
Whispers softly through the room.
A love that echoes, strong and deep,
In hearts that mourn, and vows to keep.
Though pain n my linger, sharp and keen,
Donna's spirit lives, a joyful scene.
Donna's echo, soft and low,
A love that will forever grow.
Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Prayer for Donna Lynn
"Dear Lord, we bring to you the sadness in Chuck's heart as he grieves the loss of his beloved friend, companion, and true love Donna. She was a beacon of love and light, and we remember Donna with love and gratitude. We pray for Chuck, that he may find strength in your grace, that he may feel your peace, and that he n my find comfort in the memories of Donna's life. May the love Donna and Chuck shared be a source of solace, and may you guide Chuck through this difficult time. We ask for healing, not only for Chuck, but for all who mourn Donna's passing. We remember Donna with love and gratitude, and we trust in your loving care. Amen. "

A Poem for Donna
Donna, your spirit, a radiant flame,
Burned brightly within, forever your name.
Though cancer's shadow cast a dark veil,
Your spirit soared high, never to fail.
You fought with grace, a warrior bold,
Your story of courage, forever unfolds.
In our hearts, your memory will reside,
A love that transcends, a love we confide.
Though tears may fall, and sadness may bloom,
We celebrate a life, escaping the gloom.
Your laughter, your smiles, a vibrant array,
Will forever light up our every day.
So rest now, Donna, in peaceful embrace,
Your love will forever grace this place.
We'll cherish your memory, hold it so dear,
And find comfort in knowing you're always near.

A Poem for Donna
In gardens where the sunlight streams
A gentle soul, now in sweet dreams.
Donna, with a spirit bright,
Now rests in everlasting light.
The cancer's shadow took its toll,
But love remains, within the soul.
Her laughter echoes, soft and low,
A memory that will brightly glow.
The flowers bloom, a vibrant hue,
Her memory, forever true.
Though grief may linger, deep inside,
Her love will always be our guide.
So let us cherish every day,
And live our lives in Donna's way.
Remember her with loving heart,
And play our own and meaningful part.
Her light will shine, forever near,
A beacon bright, dispelling fear.
Donna, we love you, never cease,
In our hearts, you find your peace.

Donna, a name etched in our hearts,
A life extinguished, yet love departs.
Cancer's cruel hand, a silent sting,
But memories linger, joy they bring.
Let's remember Donna's gentle grace,
The smile upon her loving face.
Though grief may linger, pain may ache,
Donna's spirit lives, for goodness sake.
We'll carry Donna in our hearts,
Until we meet beyond these parts.
A light extinguished, a soul takes flight,
But love and memories, burn so bright.

Dear Lord, as shadows gently fall,
Remember Donna, loved by all.
Her gentle spirit, bright and true,
Now shines above, a starry hue.
Chuck, her last love, with heart so sore,
Misses Donna evermore.
But in their shared love, strong and deep,
A bond that time cannot steal or keep.
Though cancer took Donna from our sight,
Her love remains, a guiding light.
We pray for Chuck, his strength to find,
In Donna's memory, peace of mind.

Donna's true love Chuck
The scent of lilies, a whispered prayer
A vacant chair, a world not fair.
Donna's gone, a silent grace,
Cancer stole her from this place.
But love's flame burns, a fiery grace,
In Chuck's heart, time cannot erase.
For in her eyes, a love so deep,
A promise whispered, secrets keep.
The laughter shared the whispered words,
A symphony of cherished birds.
In every tear, a love so true,
A testament, forever new.
Though pain may linger, shadows fall,
Your love, Chuck, will stand up tall.
Donna's spirit, bright and bold,
A story in your heart unfolds.
The memories gleam, a golden hue,
A love like yours, eternally true.
So let the tears flow, let the sorrow weep,
But know your love, it's safe to keep.

Donna's Last DanceThe cancer, a relentless tide,Swept Donna away, leaving behind,A heart so bright, now dimmed and slow, A legacy of love, a vibrant glow.Chuck, her last love, a guiding light,Through darkest days, he held Donna tight.His love a shield, a steady hand,A promised whispered, across the land.But fate's harsh hand, it intervened,Donna's journey, a path unseen.Yet in the echoes, love remains,A tender memory, through sun and rains.The dance is done, the stage is dim,But Donna's spirit, lives within.In Chuck's heart, Donna's love will bloom,A beacon bright, dispelling gloom.Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

A Prayer for Donna
Dear God, in your infinite love and mercy,
We gather here, our hearts heavy with grief.
Donna, with courage and grace, faced cancer's cruel decree,
Now, she's free from pain, a soul in sweet relief.
Her strength shone bright, a beacon in the night,
A testament to love, a guiding light.
We remember laughter shared, and tears that flowed,
A bond of love, beautifully bestowed.
Now cancer's grip has released its hold,
She's home, no longer fearfully controlled.
But in our hearts, her spirit will remain,
A love that's etched, a beauty that will reign.
We pray for comfort in this time of sorrow,
For strength to face each coming tomorrow.
May your peace, O Lord, fill every heart,
And help us remember Donna, a work of art.
Though pain may linger, our love won't fade,
In Donna's memory, a beautiful parade.
We offer this prayer, a whisper plea,
May Donna rest in eternal tranquility.

Donna's Light
The shadows fall, a silent plea,
For Donna's touch, we long to see.
A light extinguished, a love so bright,
Leaving us the darkest night.
But in our hearts, her spirit dwells,
In laughter shared and joyful spells.
The echoes linger, soft and low,
Of Donna's love. a gentle glow.
Remember the days, the time we spent,
Her kindness shown, her life well sent.
The memories shine, a vibrant hue,
A tapestry of me and you.
Though tears may fall, and pain may sting,
We'll carry her love, on our wing.
For Donna's light will never fade,
A memory made, a love displayed.
And though she's gone, to realms unknown,
Her love remains, a seed has sown.

Prayer Poem for Donna Lynn Moore Oh, gentle God, in your infinite grace, Hear our hearts filled with sorrow and space. Donna, our love, has flown to the light, Leaving Chuck, our hearts, filled with night. Donna's laughter, her smile, a radiant hue, Now fades away, but love's still true. Chuck, her last love, her guiding star, He grieves her loss, near and far. For Donna's soul, a peaceful rest, May grace and love embrace her breast. For Chuck's heart, a balm of serene, To mend the tears, the pain unseen. We pray for strength to carry on, Through the darkness, 'til the dawn. May hope and comfort fill our lives. Remembering Donna's gentle thrives. In your loving arms, we find our way, To honor her love, day by day. And Chuck, may you find peace and ease, In remembering Donna, and the gentle breeze. Prayer Poem - The Loving Light of Donna
Dear God, as shadows gather near,
A memory of Donna so dear.
Her gentle soul, a loving light,
Now shines on us throughout the night.
Chuck her last love, knows the pain,
Of love departed, life's refrain.
But in their shared love, a hope remains,
A bond that time cannot erase, it reigns.
Though cancer took Donna from our sight,
Donna's love remains, a guiding light.
We pray for Chuck, his strength to find,
In Donna's memory, peace of mind.
May God's grace bless his tender heart,
And help him heal, and play his part.
In cherishing the life they shared,
A love that will forever be cared.
Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Prayer Poem for Donna a Cancer Warrior, and Chuck, Donna's Steadfast Friend
Dear God, in your infinite mercy, we gather today To honor Donna, who fought with grace and bravery. Her strength shone bright, a beacon in the night, A testament to love, a guiding light. Chuch her best friend, your heart was her guide, A bond unbreakable, side by side, you confided. Through laughter shared and tears that flowed, Your love for Donna beautifully showed. Now cancer's grip has finally released, She's free from pain, a peaceful, sweet deceased. But in our hearts, her spirit will remain, A love that's etched, a beauty that will reign. We pray for comfort in this of sorrow, For peace and solace, for tomorrow. For Chuck, who's lost a part of his own soul, May your love surround him, making him whole. Donna, rest in peace, your journey is complete, May Heaven's embrace be sweet and neat. And Chuck, may your love never cease, In God's tender care, find everlasting peace. Prayer Poem for Donna Lynn Moore
Donna, my love, your cancer's pain,
A heavy cloak upon the rain.
But faith and love. A lasting light,
Guarded you through the darkest night.
Chuck, my friend, your heart so true.
Donna's last embrace, me and you.
A faithful love, a tender care,
A bond beyond compare.
Oh God, our God, grant Donna rest,
Her soul set free, forever blessed.
And Chuck, your grief, we understand,
A helping hand, across the land.
For in this love, a strength we find,
To leave behind, the world unkind.
So let us pray, for peace and grace,
In Donna's name, we find our place.

A Prayer Poem for Donna
Donna, you fought with grace and might,
Against the shadows, dark as night.
With Chuck by your side, a love so true,
Your journey ended, a world anew.
We mourn your absence, a vacant space,
But cherish memories, time cannot erase.
The laughter, joy, the love you shared,
A legacy of beauty, deeply cared.
Cancer's cruel grip, it took its toll,
But your spirit shines, a vibrant soul.
We pray for peace, a gentle rest,
For Donna's soul, eternally blessed.
Chuck, your love remains, a beacon bright,
Guide you through shadows, into the light.
May healing touch your weary heart,
And memories of Donna set you apart.
We gather now, in shared despair,
But love and faith, beyond compare.
Donna's spirit, we hold it near,
A Prayer for comfort, year after year. Amen.

A Gentle Light - Donna Lynn Moore
The pain has faded, now a gentle ease,
As weary spirit finds a peaceful breeze.
Our friend, so strong, with cancer's cruel sting,
Now rest in peace, a song the angels sing.
Her radiant smile, a beacon bright and true,
Touched all she met, her gentle grace anew.
With open heart and respect for every soul,
She lived a life that made us feel whole.
Though grief may linger, shadows may descend,
We'll cherish memories, a love without end.
And in our hearts, her light will softly gleam,
A guiding star, a cherished, waking dream.
So we pray for solace, for strength to bear,
The loss of one so precious, beyond compare.
May peace enfold her, comfort her dear ones,
And let her gentle spirit forever run.

A Prayer for True Friendship - Donna Lynn Moore
In shadowed hours, when darkness creeps,
And cancer's hand, it softly sweeps,
Remember true friends, a bond so strong,
A beacon bright, where we belong.
Through laughter shared and tears we weep,
Their presence near, our spirits keep,
A whispered word a gentle touch,
In this hard time, we need so much.
Through life's frail thread begins to pray,
And shadows lengthen on the way.
May faith's sweet light, begin to glow,
And guide us gently, we're to go.
In your embrace, we find our peace,
A silent strength, that will not cease,
Though earthly bonds may fade away,
Our souls will find their brighter day.
So pray for us, in this dark hour,
May faith and friendships gentle power,
Surround us all, loving grace,
And guide us home to that bright place.

My Best Friend - Donna Lynn Moore
Best friends are angels, that God sent along. They always stay beside you, whenever things go wrong. I'm glad that God blessed me, with a good friend such as you. A person to be there, a person to get me through. Never turn away from me, I can't bear to be apart. All the pain and suffering, will be too much for my heart. You are my best friend, the one who brightens my day. The one who cheers me up, the one who's here to stay. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

A friend like you is hard to find, One that touches you deep inside. You've given me strength to carry on, You've offered your hand to hold on. When times are tough, I know you're there to offer support and show you care. If not for you, I would have drowned, But you help keep me on solid ground. I believe you were sent from the n and above, because he knows the strength of love. You show that love in so many ways. It helps me get through my darkest of days. So for that, I write this poem for you and tell you from my heart, THANK YOU!!! Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

Tethered To Today - Donna Lynn Moore
Every time I wake up it aches, Never know till when I will break. How many more days can I even take, Can I let go, for my own sake? Every time I wake up I cry, Knowing each day is another lie. I'm suffering as time passes by, I'm done, I hate this, I want to die. Every time I wake up I'm down, Tears fall as I started to frown. OH, how I wish to be embraced by earth, Than just sit and wither not knowing my worth. Every time I wake up is torture, People talked and smiled. I'm a failure. Take a century into the future, So only my bones will remain for sure. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

To One Who Pledged Her Friendship - Donna Lynn Moore
Within this false world we may count ourselves blest, If we have but one friend who is faithful and true; And so in your friendship contented I'll rest, And believe I found that one blessing in you. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

Hug O' War - Donna Lynn Moore I will not play at tug o' war, I'd rather play at hug o' war. Where everyone hugs, instead of tugs. Where everyone giggles, and rolls on the rug. Where everyone kisses, and everyone grins, and everyone cuddles, and everyone wins. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!!!

You I Will Not Forget - Donna Lynn Moore We haven't seen each other in a while, but when I think of our memories I still smile. You told me you had cancer like it was nothing at all, I cried my eyes out and hit a wall. I didn't want you to go through that alone, and I hid my emotions not letting them be shown. I tried to help but didn't know what to do, but every single day I said I loved you. I wanted you to smile every single day and I wouldn't let cancer get in your way. I did my best and always prayed, I asked myself why you were taken away. Now you're a beautiful angel watching over me. I'm going to make you proud just wait and see. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

Deep Blue Eyes - Donna Lynn Moore Deep blue eyes, pretty smile, short blonde hair just for a while. It all turned gray, but that's okay, 'cause I love this little woman anyway. She has a soft and gentle touch, that tells me she loves me very much. And when I'm down, she gives me a smile, that I know she's going to let me stay for a while. When she's sad and feeling blue, I try to cheer her up with "I LOVE YOU." Yes, she has deep blue eyes and a pretty smile; she's God's gift to me just for a while. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

My Last True Love - Donna Lynn Moore
In fading light, on this my final bed,
A whisper soft, a memory to be fed.
Your love, a star, the brightest I have seen,
The Last true flame, where passion once had been.
Though shadows creep and darkness starts to rise,
Your image shines within my fading eyes.
The gentle touch, the laughter, soft and low.
A love like ours, a flame that starts to grow.
Now nearing dawn, where angels gather near,
Your name I speak, to banish all my fear.
My heart's last beat, a whisper, soft and low,
A love like ours, a flame that starts to grow.
Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

Pink Ribbon - Donna Lynn Moore
They said time would ease the pain,
Everyday I still feel the same
I wake every morning reaching for you,
My pillow soaked with my tears
like the morning dew.
We were so sure this was something we could beat,
Knowing it was no small feat.
The ribbons of yellow now mean much more,
Just never thought this would be knocking on our door.
We fought for more time together, thinking everyday you were getting better. Everyday rain or shine seemed to be lined with gold.
We still talked of our future plans of growing old.
We heard of so many that had survived this. I still remember our last kiss.
We thought we could win for sure.
Now for others I can only hope for a cure.
You Eternal Loving Friend - Chuck!

Never Forgotten Donna Lynn Moore
You'll never be forgotten,
That simply cannot be.
As long as I am living,
I'll carry you with me.
Safely tucked within my heart,
Your light will always shine;
A glowing never stilled,
Throughout the end of time.
No matter what the future brings,
Or what may lie ahead,
I know that you will walk with me,
Along the path I tread.
So rest my angel, be at peace,
And let soul fly free.
One day I'll join your glorious flight
for all eternity.
You Eternal Friend Chuck!

My Last Love, Before I Die - Donna Lynn Moore
You were my last love, I died, A gentle breeze, where oceans tide.
Your touch, a star, my guiding light, Banishing all my darkest night.
Your smile, a song, a sweet Embrace, A love that time could not erase.
Through stormy seas and calmest day, Your love with me would never stray.
Now fading fast, the colors turn, A gentle peace, where embers burn.
But in my heart, your love will stay, A memory that lights the way.
You were my last love, before I died, With you, my soul, it could confide.
And though I go, my love's true art, Forever etched within my heart.

Don't grieve fo me for now I am free, I followed the path God laid you see.
I took God's hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found God's peace at the close of this day.
Perhaps this time seems all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me, GOD WANTED ME NOW,
GOD SET ME FREE!!! Your Eternal Loving Friend - Chuck!

Although you sleep in Heaven now You're not that far away
My heart is full of memories And you're with me everyday
You lived your life with meaning And with a smile upon your face
A world that was full of happiness Is now an empty place
People say that only time Will heal a broken heart
But just like me and yoult has been torn apart I know you are at peace now
And in a place where you are free Meet me at the Perly Gates
When Heaven calls for me. Your Eternal Loving Friend Chuck!

Remember Me - Donna Lynn Moore Remember me with smiles not tears, for all the joy throughout all the years. Recall the closeness that was ours, a love as "sweet" as fragrant flowers. Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain, we'll see each other once again. I am at peace, try to believe, it was my time, I had to leave. But what a view I have from here, I see your face, I feel you near. I follow you throughout the day, you're not alone along the way. And when God calls you, you will be right by my side, right here with me. Till then, I'll wait by Heaven's door, we'll be united evermore! Your Eternal Loving Friend - Chuck.

Let Me Go - Donna Lynn Moore When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not for long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey we must all take, and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master Plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, laugh at all the things we use to do. Miss me, but let me go! The Last Embrace - Donna Lynn Moore
The sun depends, a fiery kiss, on mountain high and valley deep. A gentle hand, a Knowing bliss as final shadows start to creep. No longer bound by worldly chains we dance in silence hand in hand
No whispered fears no pouring rains just love's soft touch upon the land.
My darling look into my eyes before the curtain starts to fall. Embrace the truth that love defies and conquers death's impending thrall. The last Embrace, a tender sigh, a moment etched within the soul. As weary spirits gently fly and find their way to make them whole. Your Eternal Loving Friend - Chuck.

Since the loss of you - Donna Lynn Moore
Since the loss of you, I've learned to live each day and take it as a blessing, Knowing it may not always be this way
Since the loss of you, I've learned that when everything goes wrong to never give up on what is right, because it can only make you strong. Since the loss of you, I've learned that even when you're in a lot of pain you've got to hold yourself together so you won't feel like you're going insane. Since the loss of you, I've learned how to hold the tears when I want to cry because all I have is memories and just want to ask God why. But mostly, since the loss of you I've learned a life can be taken in the blink of an eye and only Heaven really knows when that person will have to say "Goodbye". Your eternal loving Friend Chuck.

As I stop to count my blessings, There is one thing which rings true, I'll always be grateful, For the Friend I found in you! Grateful for the special times, We've shared through the years, Times that brought us closer, Through our laughter and our tears. Grateful just to have someone, As kind and good as you, To share my finest moment with And share my sorrows, too. And when I look upon my life, What matters in the end, Is that I was really lucky, To find one true, faithful Friend and that is you

Donna was a truly wonderful person who left a lasting impact on everyone she met. I first met her when Kim and I were in 9th grade, and from the very beginning, she welcomed me and our friends as if we were part of her own family. The memories we created together will always hold a special place in my heart. Though life led us on different paths over the years, I was blessed to reconnect with Donna and Kim in recent times. I had the honor of visiting her before she grew too ill, and I was fortunate to see her a few more times while she still recognized me before her condition worsened. I am incredibly impressed with Kim and the care and support she provided during those challenging days. Donna was not only her mother—she was her best friend, confidante, and guiding light. I know that Kim now faces an immense void, and I pray for her strength and healing during this difficult time. I take comfort in believing that Donna's love and spirit will continue to watch over Kim, Colton, Carter, and the new baby soon to join the family. Rest in peace, Donna. Your warmth and kindness will never be forgotten.

I am deeply saddened by the passing of Donna. It was truly a pleasure to work with her. I will always remember Donna's kindness and positive attitude that she brought to our team. Donna will be deeply missed, but the impact she had on all of us will never be forgotten. My daughter Tara, who also worked with Donna many years ago, shares similar sentiments and we both agree that Donna's memory is truly a blessing. Miss Donna Moore was a true blessing to all around her. My name is Justin Kelm. I met Miss Moore a year or so ago. She was my dad's neighbor. Miss Moore would always talk with me about baseball and check in on me. She was passionate about her Astros, but she always would ask me about my Pittsburgh Pirates. Not many of us around here. She asked me why I love them and she got to know who I am. She was always thankful. I'll always remember the times we spoke. I know this is hard on a lot. Honestly I'll always remember her for being a great woman. Saturday will be tough, but know this. My wife Chyann Kelm and I are always here for the family. Until we meet again Miss Donna More.
