I remember the day your mom told me that you were officially in her belly. We were both in shock LOL. I'm glad your mom got the chance to feel you inside of her and being able to fill your needs. Now Ariana are with our savior and looking down at your beautiful family. I pray you give them strength to get through this hard time. May God give them the strength and peace in this time of need.

Ariana, The moment your mommy and daddy told us they were expecting, a piece of our hearts belonged to you instantly. Taking pictures of your family on the beach was such a special moment and I can't thank you enough for allowing me to be apart of that. I just know you would have been as sassy as your sister if not more.

You left this earth too soon and with you a piece of our hearts sweet girl. We will take care of your family for you while you watch over them from above. ☐ Rest in Paradise Ariana 🧡
