Brenda Gail Morrison

MAR 26, 1947 - JAN 28, 2026

Brenda Gail Morrison—lovingly known as Gail to family and friends and Mimi to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren—entered eternal rest on January 28, 2026, in League City, Texas, surrounded by those she loved most. She was 78.

Born on March 26, 1947, in Houston, Texas, Gail graduated from Galena Park High School in 1965 and went on to live a life rich in love, laughter, faith, and adventure. She truly never met a stranger. With a warm smile and an open heart, Gail had a gift for making everyone feel welcome and valued.

Strong in her faith in our Savior, Jesus Christ, Gail lived with joy and purpose, trusting in God's plan and sharing His love through kindness and compassion. She delighted in nature, cherished traveling, and embraced adventure—always eager to see what beauty the next journey might bring.

Above all else, Gail treasured her family. Being “Mimi” was one of her greatest joys, and her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched with her encouragement, humor, and unconditional love.

Gail was joyfully reunited in Heaven with her father, William C. Hamilton; her mother, Catherine Hamilton; her sister, Linda Jackson; and her son, Stephen A. Morrison.

She leaves behind a loving family who will carry her spirit forward, including her sister, Karen (Jim) Colson; her daughter, Michele (Stephen) Sagerian; and her beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A viewing and memorial service celebrating Gail's life will be held on Saturday, February 07, 2026, at San Jacinto Memorial Funeral Home. Gail will be laid to rest beside her mother and father.
