My Tío had the kindest heart and was always the warmest greeter. Every time I saw him, he had such a soothing voice that could make you smile and feel instantly welcome. I'll always picture him in his 18-wheeler, working hard and driving heavy machinery a true worker through and through.

I know life has taken us in different directions, but I wanted to reach out and say that I still consider you family. I remember when you gave Rafael jr the nickname "Zapata" and until your last days you stuck to that name. I will always remember the jokes, the bs you carried in your conversations. Fly high Ruben, God speed 🙏

Although I didn't get to spend a lot of time with him, the times I saw him he always made me feel welcome. I remember him as a hardworking man who loved his family wholeheartedly. I loved hearing all the beautiful stories throughout the years of what an amazing father/grandfather he was.

I remember how every time I saw him, he greeted me with the biggest smile, a smile that always brought warmth and comfort. He had a way of making me laugh even when he didn't try. One of the most beautiful things about him was the deep pride he carried for his grandchildren and their achievements. At the Austin Marathon just last year, when both Jay and Anthony ran, I remember the pure happiness shining in his eyes as he cheered them on with his whole heart. Each time they passed by, his face lit up, and in those moments, he became the loudest, most devoted supporter anyone could ever ask for. It was a privilege to be a part of his life.
