“ You were and always will be my favorite uncle. I will always remember ur smile and contagious laugh. One of my best memories that I will always hold dear to my heart... when I was little bitty, you would bring the girls to grandma's house before work. Since I was an only child, I always wanted to be with them. Every afternoon you would pick them up, I would ask you if the girls were coming to grandma's house the next day because I wanted to spend the night at ur house. If they wouldn't because Theresa was off, you would tell me I could go anyway and you would bring me back to grandma's before work. You would wake me up at 5 in the morning and tell me to go back to sleep and you would wake me up when we got there. That would make me so happy, and you knew it. You always looked after me like I was one of ur girls. You were the most genuine and honest man I've ever met. And I had the honor of being your niece. I'm glad I made it to see you that friday. The last thing you told me before I walked out, was you love me. I will forever miss you and love you. RIP my favorite tío.

“ To the Humeda Family,

My heart breaks for the loss of such a great man! The days ahead will not be easy, and yes, life will forever change, but just think, when your time comes, know that he will be waiting with open arms to lovingly welcome you into heaven, which is where I'm sure he is rejoicing.

May you rest in peace Mr. Humenda-

“ Mr. Humeda,

It was such a blessing to have the opportunity to know you since I was 16yrs old. Words cannot describe how thankful I am for everything you have done for my daughters and I. Just know I will forever protect them and keep them safe. Your granddaughters (Kayla & Emma) will miss you and those evening pickups from school. You were always a very hard worker, a true family man and a phone call away when I needed you. Rest easy and lets hope for another World Series for the Astros.

Forever in our hearts,

Corina Humeda

“ Dad,

The last words you told me ,”I love you, mija!” I keep hearing those words in my head everyday. I’m thankful for having you as my dad. You have shown me love, kindness and the meaning of family. You are the only one who knew me. I will miss our phone calls after work and your giggle. I know you worried about everyone, just know we will be okay. Some how some way without you. One thing I do know you had a lot of patients with all of us. You never gave up on any of us. I will always miss you and love you the rest of my life, until we meet again.

Your middle child,
Lisa Humeda

“ Hugo, I don't know what to tell you. I don't think you were supposed to go this soon, but God had a plan for you. You can be sure that everything will be alright. I know you worried about the roof and the driveway. I will get all that done and other little things I know you wanted to do and didn't get a chance to finish.

You were a good family man and husband.. you always worried about family arguing with each other no matter who it was. But now you can Rest In Peace and not worry about anything. Know that everything will be alright.

I will always love you and always have. I regret I never told you often enough. Until we meet again when you come for me.

Your loving wife, now and forever after, Theresa.

“ A great man has died, my dear uncle has died. Your humanitarian and family legacy must always endure in our minds and hearts, as an example of life, from generation to generation. Today we are torn by your departure. But in the face of pain, the love that you planted in us, was harvested in love and strength to move forward, in your name, we will love you for eternity

“ I wish I could've at least seen you again. I haven't seen you in such a long time. I'm so sorry tio. I hope you get to meet my grandpa. I love you tio.

“ My fondest memory....No matter how many times I tried to pay him for the work he did for us, he refused to take it. I had to think of a way to sneak it in somehow. I asked Theresa and Jessica to think of a way. They said it was no use, he wasn't going to take it. Then one day Jessica said the only way was to give it to him in a birthday card. So, then, here comes his birthday....I snuck it into his birthday card and with that famous big smile of his he said to me "you got me!" And we all laughed about it. Again...the day before the ice storm this year, he helped us with a water heater. I knew he wouldn't let me pay him. I asked him if he would take a couple of pounds of Barbacoa with all the fixings for payment and he said ok. So, I put some money in a white envelope and taped it to the bottom of the white paper covering. When he got home he threw the white paper in the trash without noticing the envelope. I knew he would call me about being sneaky again, but he never did. So, I called him later that evening and asked him if he had found the envelope with the money. He said "No! Oh my God I threw it out." He went searching for it. I could hear him rustling through the trash...he came back on the phone, he was laughing about how I had "tricked" him again. We laughed. Only one of the fondest memory I have to cherish forever.

“ Dad..we are all so heartbroken that you are no longer with us on this earth. Everyday I ask for your strength to get up and go to work to provide for mom and my family, just like you did..rain or shine. I have so many special memories of you that I will cherish, and so will your little “pirrhantias.” I don’t know how I will get through not asking you what you want for dinner because I always made sure you were fed. You were my ghost hunters abd anything UFO on the history channel partner. I just don’t know how I’m going to continue on, but I know I have to for mom and for my girls. Thank you dad.. for being the best father ever. Nobody will ever compare to you..I pray that your at peace and resting easy knowing that we will be okay down here. We will stick together as a family as you have instilled that in us from day one. We won’t let you down dad..I love you so much and know I will see you again one day..rest in paradise dad te quiero mucho

“ Tio you leave us with this unbelievable heartache and tremendous loss, but also with so many great memories! I’ll forever miss our chats that were always full of laughter, the kind of laughter that literally had us sounding like we needed an inhaler! You are the perfect definition of an AMAZING UNCLE, so selfless and kindhearted. Thank you so much for always being there for us and showing your unconditional love. Family was always first to you, that’s a memory I will forever treasure about you! You are loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure! Until I see you again keep watching over all of us!
